It was a chilly and early start for most people as today was going to be a big day.

We all met up at 7.30am for a 8am departure. Everyone was on time which was good. We eventually got away at 8.10am after realising that I (Kim) forgot a few little details in regards to people coming and where we were meeting them (me bad). We headed up the Putty Rd where Rod joined the group from the service station and continued up to Grey Gums Café for a coffee and loo break before heading off onto the track. We managed to find the track in after going past it and all aired down. The track was a bit washed out in some sections and there was one corner that was pretty muddy and slippery but it didn't pose any problems for this group. We headed down to the Sheepskin Hut for our lunch stop.

Campers had been staying there overnight so the fire was still burning, just enough to keep us warm. Everyone was having a good chat and laugh. The drop toilet at the Sheepskin Hut was very full! Not recommended!!

We packed up and headed off to continue our loop. The views were amazing along the track and the scenery was beautiful with plenty of wildlife. After a couple of hours we eventually came out at the Putty community where we aired up and said our goodbyes. This was a great track and a good day was had by all.
